Sch. A. E. Whyland, Capt. Wm. Nelson, arrived from Quero bank this morning with 300,000 pounds of salt cod, the largest dory handline fare of the season.

Halifax Mackerel Market Cornered.

The Halifax Chronicle says: A representative of some American speculators who is in the city, is buying up all the salt mackerel that he can get. When he arrived here there was somewhat of a slump in the market, mackerel selling for $4.50 per barrel, and the fishermen found some difficulty in disposing of them for that figure. Since the American's arrival prices have jumped up greatly. The price of the fish kept going up at the rate of fifty cents per bbl. until now the fishermen are realizing $7.50 on every bbl. The American also pays for the barrels and gives an advance of fifteen cents on the cost of the barrel. The fishermen are in a happy mood over getting such good prices for their fish.

MANY FINE FARES.

To-day's Fish Receipts Valued at Over $43,000.

BIG TRIPS OF FRESH AND SALT COD

Two Dandy Mackerel Fares Help Swell the Total.

Codfish are in very liberal receipts to-day, in fact the amount in is ahead of any day this season, with but few exceptions. In one sense it is a banner day, for it is a leader for the shackers, most all the arrivals being at this line of fishing. The fares amount to 758,000 pounds of salt cod, and 410,000 pounds of fresh cod. Other arrivals to-day have 742 barrels of salt mackerel and 17,000 pounds of fresh halibut. A fair estimate places the value of to-day's receipts here at about $43,000, and possibly a little more.

There are several very fine fares in Sch. Flirt, Capt. Albert Green, has 150,000 pounds of fresh fish and 40,000 pounds of salt cod. This is one of the finest shack fares of the season. Capt. Green is young in years, but is today one of the leading skippers of the shack fleet.

Sch. Judique, Capt. William Goodwin, has a fine fresh and salt fare, 115,000 pounds of salt cod and 60,000 pounds of fresh cod. This means a big stock. Capt. Goodwin is a hustler.

Sch. Jubilee, Capt. Peter A. Iverson, has a nice trip, 135,000 pounds of salt cod and the two dory handliners Vesta and Norman Fisher have good fares.

Sch. Helen G. Wells, Capt. John Glinn, has 100,000 pounds of salt cod. Sch. Harvester, Capt. Eldredge Spinney, and sch. Elsie M. Smith, Capt. Otto Johnson, as well as sch. Orpheus, all have fine shack fares.

Sch. Nourmahal, with 396 barrels of salt mackerel, and sch. Agnes E. Downes, with 226 barrels of salt mackerel, are also among the big fares.

Sept. 9 "

BIG MACKEREL FARE.

Sch Nourmahal Has Most Profitable Trip of Season.

Reports of Few Small Hauls on Maine Coast.

Sch. Nourmahal, Capt. Flar McKown, arrived from the Maine coast this morning with what is one of the largest and will no doubt be the best single mackerel trip of the season, as far as stock goes. The particulars of Capt. McKown securing his big trip in a single school off Mt. Desert Rock and had to go into Southwest Harbor for barrels and salt have previously been published in the TIMES. At that place he sold $636 worth of fresh mackerel.

Sch. Agnes E. Downes, Capt. Stephen Cole, is in from off Matinicus with a nice fare, 226 barrels of salt mackerel.

Capt. Sewall Smith of sch. Indiana reports that on Thursday about six sail of the seining fleet got small hauls off Matinicus, and on Friday six or seven vessels also got small hauls. Capt. Smith thinks that in the two days fishing the six vessels might have averaged 75 barrels each.

No fish were taken Saturday or Sunday forenoon up to the time the Indiana kept off for home.

This morning's stories and rumors were afloat regarding big hauls by many of the fleet off Matinicus (Friday and Saturday, but Capt. Smith's report, which is undoubtedly correct, virtually contradicts the stories.

On this trip the Nourmahal will probably stock nearly $6000, which will probably put Capt. McKown close to sch. Helen Miller Gould in the race for the high line honor.

The fare of sch. Nourmahal sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co.

Good Stocks.

Sch. Gossip, Capt. Antone Courant, stocked $3600 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $103.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw, Capt. James McHenry, stocked $2750 on her recent hall but trip, the crew sharing $68.45.

Sch. Edwin B. Holmes, Capt. Robert Brideson, stocked $1800 on her recent Georges trip.

Sch. Preceptor Gets $3964 on Her Halibut Trip.

Sch. Flar Nourmahal, Capt. McKown, stocked $5200 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $128. This is the second best seining trip of the year, and puts the Nourmahal high up on the list of vessels with big stocks, probably next to sch. Helen Miller Gould.

Capt. McKown, whose home is at Boothbay Harbor, has for many years been noted as one of the leading mackerel catchers and his good work this year shows that he is keeping right up to his reputation. The Nourmahal is owned by Cunningham & Thompson.

Sch. Preceptor, Capt. James Goodwin of this port, stocked $3964 on her recent fresh halibut triplanded at Boston. the crew sharing $99.62. Capt. Goodwin is a quiet steady skipper, who seldom misses bringing in a very remunerative fare.
